

NEW PERFORMANCE ANALYSIS

Change can be difficult. Whether you're launching a new product, installing a new system, adding new responsibilities, or anything in between, a New Performance Analysis will help determine what's needed to prepare your employees for new performance and define the interventions needed to reach peak performance as quickly as possible.

YOUR CHALLENGE

You need to prepare your people to perform in the most efficient and effective way possible.

EXAMPLES

- The organization is putting in a new system.
- A direct report is taking on additional responsibilities.
- Onboarding needs to be more effective.
- A new role is being created.

THE GOAL

The goal of a New Performance Analysis is to figure out what your employees need in order to be prepared for a new system, role, product, etc., and to create the ideal conditions that will empower them to successfully produce the new desired output.

DELIVERABLES*

- Role Overview
- Performance Profile(s)
- Recommendations Report
- Implementation Plan

*Specific deliverables determined by the nature of the analysis.
